OREGON DUCKS FOOTBALL

Chip Kelly, Head Coach & Offensive Coordinator University of Oregon Ducks

Named Oregon's 30th head football coach in March 2009, the former New Hampshire offensive coordinator arrived at Oregon in 2007 and promptly produced the highest scoring team and most yards of total offense in school history. His unit bettered both marks again the following year and finished in the top 10 nationally in rushing offense, total offense and scoring offense.

Under his guidance in '08, the Ducks were the Pac-10's best at running the ball (280.1 yards per game) for the third year in a row, scoring 41.9 points per game, and moving the football downfield (484.9 ypg). U of O ranked second nationally in rushing and was seventh in the country in the other two offensive benchmarks.

Last year's team scored 300 rushing yards in eight of 13 games, including one of 400-plus, with offenses surpassing 50 points 10 times during Kelly's first two years, including an attack that produced an Oregon single-game record 694 yards of total offense in the 2008 Civil War victory over Oregon State. UofO's 65 points that day against the Beavers were the most ever scored by the Ducks, or allowed by OSU, in a Pac-10 game.

Also during his second year in Eugene, the Ducks established school standards for touchdowns (71) and rushing touchdowns (47) on their way to a No. 9 (USA Today) national ranking. Oregon capped its top-10 run with a 42-31 win over No. 13 Oklahoma State in the Holiday Bowl - UofO's second bowl victory in as many years.

Kelly served as New Hampshire's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 1999 through 2006, where his offenses averaged better than 400 yards of total offense in seven of his eight seasons and more than 30 points a game in his final four years. As a result, three Wildcat players received first-team All-America acclaim each of his last two seasons.

He was named the College Assistant Coach of the Year by the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston following the 2005 season in addition to being selected as "one of college football's hottest coaches" by American Football Monthly.
